NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This Notice describes how medical and dental information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information and to provide you with this Notice of our legal duties and privacy practices. We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this Notice.

We may use and disclose your health information for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations. Other uses and disclosures may be made only with your written authorization or as permitted by law.

We may receive or maintain health information related to substance use disorder treatment from other healthcare providers. Such information is protected by federal confidentiality regulations (42 CFR Part 2) and may be subject to additional restrictions on use and disclosure.

You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of your records, request amendments, request restrictions, request confidential communications, receive an accounting of disclosures, and receive a paper copy of this Notice.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with our office or with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

This Notice remains in effect until revised.
